

Iso Herquist

Iso Herquist is genuine: a musician with heart and soul, a serious jester and confirmed ukulele addict.

He sounds like jazz, but he's punk rock. Embedded knee-deep in blues, his husky, dark voice sings it all from swing to metal - even though it might take a little while to recognize. His ukulele is not a neat little Hawaiian gimmick, but a formidably played instrument.

Iso Herquist masters Oktoberfest vibes like no other and is above all enjoyable. Musically bold and profound, authentically spontaneous and funny - a true entertainer.

Iso Herquist has two live programs:

- . »Iso Herquist: Pogo for One« - pop, punkrock and a hard groovin' ukulele.
- . »Iso Herquist: Ekstra Bløde« - Swing havin' the Blues. Original Jazzclub-Feeling.
